7. Conflicts of Interest

In accordance with the FSP's Conflicts of Interest Management Policy, the FSP places a high priority on its clients' interests. As conflicts of interest could undermine the integrity and professionalism of the FSP and its employees, any potential or recognized instance must be identified as early as possible. Potential conflicts of interest are inherent in any business and therefore it is not the aim of the FSP to avoid all conflicts. If conflict situations cannot be avoided, the FSP will manage equitably and in the client's interest as an integral part of the FSP's duties and obligations. The FSP maintains an active Conflicts of Interest Management Policy, which is available on request.
